

Visa Information for International Delegates

This note provides general visa guidance for international delegates. Visa rules, fees and eligibility are determined by the Government of Nepal and may change. Delegates should verify the latest requirements through official immigration sources before travel.

1. Visa Options

International delegates may use one of the following visa options, depending on nationality and eligibility:

Option	When to Use	Official Link
Online visa / ETA application	Delegates are encouraged to complete the online application before travel, where applicable.	Online Application Portal
Visa on Arrival	Eligible foreign nationals may obtain a visa on arrival at Tribhuvan International Airport, Kathmandu.	Visa on Arrival Portal
Embassy of Nepal or Consulate or Department of Immigration	Delegates who are not eligible for visa on arrival, or who prefer advance issuance, should apply through the nearest Nepalese diplomatic mission.	Department of Immigration

2. Recommended Process

- Check your visa eligibility before making final travel arrangements.
- Complete the official online application before departure whenever possible.
- Ensure that your passport is valid for at least six months from the date of entry into Nepal.
- Carry both printed and electronic copies of your visa application, invitation letter, registration confirmation, accommodation details and travel itinerary.
- Keep sufficient time for immigration processing upon arrival.

3. Typical Documents to Carry

Immigration authorities may request supporting documents depending on nationality, visa type and individual circumstances. Delegates are advised to carry the following:

- Valid passport with at least six months validity
- Completed visa application or online application confirmation
- Recent passport-size photograph, if required
- Conference invitation letter
- Conference registration confirmation
- Accommodation details

- Return or onward travel itinerary
- Proof of sufficient funds, if requested
- Applicable visa fee, where required

4. Visa Fees and Processing

Visa fees, processing time and eligibility requirements are set by the Government of Nepal. Delegates should check the latest official information before travel. The conference website will not provide detailed fee tables because these may change.

5. Conference Visa Support

The Conference Secretariat may provide reasonable visa facilitation support to registered international delegates upon request. Such support may include:

- Official conference invitation letter
- Registration verification letter
- Confirmation of conference participation

Please note that the Organizing Committee cannot influence or guarantee visa approval. Visa issuance remains solely at the discretion of the Government of Nepal.
